OVERVIEW

This document sets out an agreement for a fee free loan of a racing mal (the board) for the purposes of training and competition between Sorrento Surf Life Saving Club WA (The Club) and the Lessee (Athlete or guardian) named below. The board is the property of Sorrento Surf Life Saving Club (WA) (the Club) and will remain the property of the Club

Requests for a board loan may be made in writing to the Competition Director

LESSEE (Athlete) OBLIGATIONS

- Athlete is to attend majority of board training sessions throughout the season and compete for the Club
- The board may be stored at the surf club or at the lessee's home.
- If stored at the surf club the board should be locked using the lessees own padlock when not in use.
- Board is to be transported inside a suitable board cover.
- The board is to be maintained in good condition.
- If the board is damaged in competition or during a sanctioned training session damage must be immediately reported to team manager or coach and the club will organise repair.
- If the board is damaged outside of competition or sanctioned training the damage must be immediately reported to the competition director competitiondirector@sorrentoslsc.org.au and repair organised with the club's preferred repairer at the lessee's expense.
- If the board is damaged beyond repair outside competition or sanctioned training the lessee will be required to pay the Club the casualty value of the board as set out below
- If at any time the Club believes that the board is being misused and/or the above obligations are not being met; this agreement can be terminated with the board being returned immediately the lessee will be required to pay the Club the casualty value of the board as set out below
- At the end of the loan period the lessee will return the board to the club and / or remove the padlock. If the lessee fails to return the board
- Board is to be returned and inspected by the Competition Director or delegate. Deposits will be refunded only if the board is in reasonable condition, as determined by the Competition Director or delegate
